

If pressing "OK" on your printer does not bypass the low ink message, you may see a message showing to "Press ► for more information."

You may then see a message stating that "Printer failure or damage attributed to the use of a remanufactured inkjet cartridge will not be covered by the printer warranty." Press "OK" to continue through this error (please click here for more information on this error) and allow your printer to finish printing.

